4661. SHRI RAJ NATH SINGH: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that cadre review of Assistants (CSS, GSS) grade is in pending;

if so, the reasons therefor; whether it is also a fact that Assistants in Department of Information Technology are stagnating from the last 10 to 15 years in their cadre;

the measures being proposed to upgrade the post or under take review of the cadre; and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCESAND PENSIONS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): (a) and (b) The Government in October, 2003 took several decisions to restructure the Central Secretariat Service (CSS) comprehensively, which also included Assistants Grade of Central Secretariat Service. The proposals relating to cadre review of Non-CSS cadres are considered by the administrative Ministry concerned in consultation with the Department of Expenditure in the Ministry of Finance.

Yes, Sir.

and (e) As restructuring of CSS has been done in 2003, there is no immediate proposal for a cadre review or upgradation of the post.

Public-private partnership for hospitals

†4662. SHRI RAJ MOHINDER SINGH MAJITHA:
SHRI RAVI SHANKAR PRASAD:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

whether it is a fact that the Planning Commission has suggested the State Governments to run their hospitals under public-private partnership;

if so, the suggestion in this regard; whether it is also a fact that the aim of private sector is to earn maximum profit for capital investment;

if so, Government's reaction thereto; and whether medical facilities in the country are likely to be more expensive with implementation of the above suggestion?
